Don't click on links from strangers

Fraudsters can get hold of personal data and card details.

Got a link from a friend? – Don't click just yet.

First call your friend and ask them whether they actually sent you the link.

Protect your accounts!

Set up two-factor authentication whenever possible.

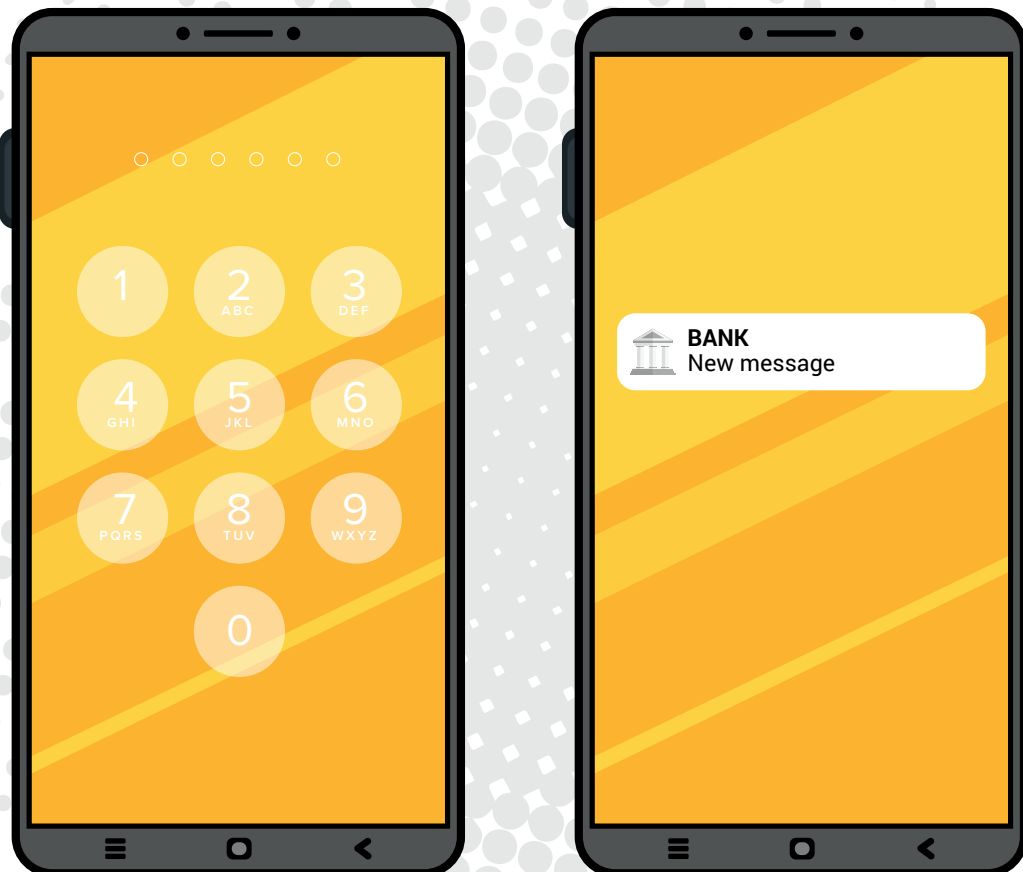

That's so when logging into an account, apart from your login and password, you'll need to enter a confirmation code sent to your smartphone, e-mail, or a respective app.
